MANY OUT TO HEAR STEDMAN

In First Speech of Campaign Yesterday.

Democratic Nominees For Congress Made Address At Labor Day Celebration in Spray—Governor Kitchin the Principal Speaker, However—Extremely Muddy Roads Prevented Hundreds From Attending—Received With Applause.

From fifteen hundred to two thousand people heard Maj. C. M. Stedman and Gov. Kitchin at Spray yesterday in the opening speech of the campaign in the Fifth district. The extremely muddy roads, for which Rockingham county is celebrated in wet weather, were well nigh impassable after a week's rain and this prevented hundreds of farmers from being present.

The Rockingham executive committee had made arrangements for big processions from Reidsville and Madison, but these had to be called off and those who braved the six and eight inch mud drove out in a straggling kind of way. A delegation headed by Chairman Young met a delegation from Greensboro at the station with conveyances, but it took just four hours of hard driving to make the distance between Reidsville and Spray. Major Stedman and Governor Kitchin went over Sunday afternoon.

The speaking was in the nature of a Labor Day celebration and the people congregated in the park at Spray where seats had been arranged and a platform erected for the speakers. The Spray band furnished the music for the occasion.

At the conclusion of the speaking hundreds crowded around Major Stedman and Governor Kitchin to shake hands with them. The Rockingham leaders are confident of carrying the county by a large majority this year and from the reception accorded Maj. Stedman yesterday it looks as if he will lead the ticket.

At 11 o'clock Mr. A. D. Ivey, Democratic candidate for the office of state senator from Rockingham, presided and made a short speech by way of introduction, in which he spoke of the occasion and the purpose for which the people had gathered. He then introduced Major Stedman.

Major Stedman made a short speech, yielding his time to Gov. Kitchin, who he stated would not, perhaps, have the pleasure of being in Rockingham again during the campaign. His speech, while brief, was clear and to the point and he was frequently interrupted by applause. His presentation of the tariff issue was in a few words he made clear to his audience the great injustice the tariff does the laboring people. No less able was his explanation of the remedy needed for this evil. He pledged his best efforts to secure relief from this burden as elected to Congress. He spoke of the promises of the Republican administration to grant the oppressed relief and he told what had actually been done. He concluded he was heartily applauded.

Mr. S. Porter Graves, of Yanceyville, candidate for solicitor, was the next speaker and he too gave way in order that Gov. Kitchin might make a more extended address. So after touching on one of the more important issues of the campaign he concluded by introducing Governor Kitchin.

Gov. Kitchin spoke for two and a half hours. He stated before beginning that this was possibly his last opportunity to speak before Rockingham Democrats during the campaign and he would take considerably more time than did Major Stedman and Mr. Graves. He stated that anyone who so desired might feel at liberty to retire at any time. However, he was noticeable that but few if any did until the speaker had concluded.

Gov. Kitchin reviewed the progress made by the state since the Russell administration and compared it with that made under the Republican regime. He referred to the satisfaction of all the classes of the Republicans that the affairs of the state had been handled in an extravagant manner. In fact, he pointed out that the monies alleged to have been squandered went in reality to new and larger school buildings, for care of the deaf, dumb and blind, the old soldiers and for the insane. "We will say money thus expended is squandered," he exclaimed. "Let me show him and meet the scorn

PYTHIAN LODGE TO HAVE A FINE ELECTRIC SIGN

No. 80 At Meeting Last Night Took This Progressive Step.

At last night's meeting of Greensboro Lodge, No. 80, Knights of Pythias, it was decided to place an order for a large electric sign to be hung over the entrance to Castle Hall.

This sign will be the most expensive sign in the city with possibly one or two exceptions.

After transacting the business of the meeting, which included the conferring of the rank of page on Mr. W. L. Johnson, the lodge last night partook of a watermelon feast. The melons had been in cold storage ever since last Friday and were greatly enjoyed by the Sir Knights.

Death of Mr. Samuel Leonard.

Mr. Samuel Leonard died yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock at his home five miles south of the city. He had been ill about a month and his death was not unexpected. He is survived by his wife and five children. The funeral will take place this morning at 11 o'clock at Rehoboth church and the burial will be in the cemetery of that church.

Mr. J. Boyce Hunter, of Charlotte, is visiting friends in the city.

MUNICIPAL COURT.

A Variety of Small Offenders Before Judge Eure.

There were several cases in Municipal Court yesterday morning, ranging from simple assault to storebreaking. LeRoy Cledennin, the negro whom Officer Causey arrested Saturday after a stiff fight, was before Judge Eure charged with breaking into Patterson Company's wholesale grocery store and for larceny of several pairs of shoes from the Southern Railway. In the first case he plead guilty and was given twelve months on the public roads. In the second case he plead not guilty but the evidence was too strong against him and he was given a year more on the public highways.

Hermon Pettie, a white boy, was given thirty days for beating his way on the train. He will serve out the sentence in the workhouses.

William Byrd, a negro carriage driver, paid a fine of $15 and costs and $2 for repairing a bicycle that he was reckless enough to run into.

John Rodgers, a negro, was taxed with a fine of $2.50 for simple assault.

The negro, LeRoy Cledennin, is a desperado character and the police believe that he is the perpetrator of the many robberies that have been done in this city recently. They believe that they will be able to fasten the robbery of J. W. Jones & Co., Standard-Gillette Light Company, J. Opperman & Son, and M. G. Newell & Company, upon him. It is known that he sent an express package to parties in a South Carolina town and the package may contain part of the booty. The police have been subjected to criticism for not running down the robbers that have been making the Elm street merchants nervous, but the capture of Cledennin will no doubt put an end to the thieving. There seems to be a gang of negroes who have a regular circuit of towns that they visit for sneak thieving and the police are quickly getting on to them and nab one or more of the thieves every week.

YESTERDAY'S GAME.

In Poor Exhibition Greensboro Defeats Proximity.

In poorly played farce that was absolutely devoid of interest the patched up Patriots defeated the Proximity team by a 5 to 1 score at the Come Park yesterday afternoon. The Prox team had imported a battery, Stafford and Siefert, who were the only hard working players in the game. Eldridge and Hicks composed the battery for Greensboro and Hicks caught a good game for an old man, and Eldridge, had he tried, could have shut the Prox boys out without allowing them a hit. The last few innings of the game was a farce, the Heksamen striking out every time they came to the bat and playing a very poor exhibition.

Something of a sensation was stirred here last night by the arrest of Norfleet Strohach, son of Frank Strohach, one of Raleigh's best known citizens on the charge of selling whiskey. A negro, Will Bryant, claims to have purchased whiskey from him. Norfleet Strohach is a first cousin of Police Justice Strohach was at Spray today for a political speech with Major Chas. M. Stedman and at Reidsville tonight for another address. He will return to the city tomorrow.

The deepest concern is felt here regarding the condition of Col. James G. Hollingsworth, of Fayetteville, who

IN A BAD WAY.

Many a Greensboro Reader Will Feel Grateful for This Information. When your back gives out; becomes lame, weak or aching; when urinary troubles set in. Your kidneys are "in a bad way." Here is good evidence to prove it. Mrs. Delara Stubbins, S. Main street, Burlington, N. C., says: "About three years ago I began to suffer from severe pains through the small of my back and across my limbs. My body bloated and the kidney secretions were unnatural. The doctor said I had symptoms of Bright's disease. I at length procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and began using them. In a short time they greatly relieved my suffering and I am now able to attend to my household duties. I gladly advise all sufferers of kidney complaint to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

WANTED TO BE WOODED AGAIN.
So Mrs. Phoebe Palmer Divorced Husband to Have the Pleasure.
Kansas City Times.

Mrs. Phoebe Palmer, 58 years old, had much fun receiving lost misses and "teasing" Walter F. Palmer, 59 years old, during their second courtship, according to her story, told yesterday just before she and Mr. Palmer were married the second time. He wooed her three years, some 35 years ago. He was an ardent and persistent suitor, she said. He insisted that they marry and she consented.

But several months ago she left his home in Silver Lake, Kan., and obtained a divorce. Then he began his second courtship. He simply couldn't live without her, he told her.

"I love you more than I did 35 years ago when I led you to the altar the first time," he said to her. "What's the use of living apart when we lived together 35 years? I miss you more than I ever thought I could miss anybody."

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer came to Kansas City from Silver Lake yesterday and were remarried in the office of Francis D. Ross, county recorder.

"I said 'yes' too soon when he asked me the first time 35 years ago," Mrs. Palmer explained yesterday afternoon at the courthouse. "The experience of that first courtship taught me a lesson. I wasn't going to miss the pleasure in the second courtship. I wanted him to make love to me just as he did before, and even a little bit more. So I didn't say 'Yes' right away. I made him wait awhile. He came courting though, just as he did 35 years ago. I wanted him all the time just the worst kind, because I missed him a whole lot, and I guess both of us were to blame a little bit about that divorce business."

"Yes, sir; we've had the pleasure of two courtships in our time," Mr. Palmer observed.

"That's enough, though," came from Mrs. Palmer's corner of the room.

They will return to Silver Lake, Kan., today.

"There aren't going to be any more divorces in this family," Mr. Palmer said as he left the Recorder's office with his second time bride.

MEETING EXPECTATIONS.

Opening of Liberty-Piedmont Institute Satisfactory in Every Respect.

Wallburg, Sept. 3.—The opening of Liberty-Piedmont Institute is certainly meeting expectations in every respect.

There are more boys and girls in the buildings than ever before so early, and the students continue to come in. Every available room in the Vann Home, the girls' dormitory, is occupied, and a new building is being put in readiness to be used as a dormitory for girls. The writer was astonished this morning when visiting the school by the settled condition of things. The classification of students is about completed, and real work beginning. In fact every student seemed to have gotten his bearings and was right in line for work.

The Philotechnic Literary Society met last night and reorganized. After election of officers and initiation of new members, the whole society was filled with enthusiasm as Prof. Curtis and former members spoke to them of the work and its importance. The Princess Literary Society for girls will hold its first meeting next Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

AMUSEMENTS

Dollie Barlowe, a dainty little dancer, direct from the Crystal Palace, London, is the premiere danseuse with "The Soul Kiss," which is the underlined attraction at the Grand for Wednesday 7th. During the action of this big, brilliant, musical sensation, Dollie Barlowe, assisted by a special dancing chorus of pretty girls, will introduce some novel combinations of toe-dancers, a series never before seen on the stage and which shows the extraordinary skill of the performer. "The Soul Kiss," with its new-classy, novel, musical numbers, is said to be one of the most pretentious musical entertainments that have ever been housed within the four walls of a theatre. The company numbers sixty people in its cast, including a bevy of gorgeously gowned girls.

REUNITED AFTER MANY YEARS.

Mrs. Debois, of Baltimore, Finds Her Long-Lost Brother.
Baltimore Sun.

Separated by the sea years ago, then to live in the same land and not know it and, finally, to feel again the love and presence of each other is the story of the lives of Isidor Wulfson, of Indianapolis, and his sisters, Mrs. Bessie Debois, 822 North Howard street, this city, and Mrs. Goldolene Wulfson, 443 Seventh avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

In the little town of Bousk, in Kurland, a province of Russia, the trio were born and played away the hours of their childhood. Then brother Isidor—it was 32 years ago—came to America. Not once did he hear from his sisters. They, too, came to America, but he knew nothing of their emigration. Isidor prospered and he is now a sealer of weights and measures in Indianapolis.

Mr. Wulfson went to New York on a visit, and also to see how the Department of Weights and Measures was conducted in the metropolis. He saw more than the officials evidently wanted him to see. He pointed out the laxity of the Manhattan measures and along came a reporter to interview him. His ideas and suggestions appeared in a New York daily.

Not long after Mr. Wulfson received a letter from London informing him that if he was the same Isidor Wulfson who had left Russia long ago he had a sister living in Brooklyn. Three weeks later he received another letter from a summer resort in Maryland which broke the news that more than likely Mrs. Bessie Debois, the mother of Adolph Debois, this city, was a sister of his.

When the opportunity presented itself Mr. Wulfson hurried East and came to this city. He found that Mrs. Debois was his sister. Then he, Mrs. Debois and her son took a train to Brooklyn and Mrs. Wulfson, was, sure enough, the other sister.

An Evangelist

By OLIVE EDNA MAY

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

"Elijah," said Mrs. Dunkers, "thurs an evangelist goin' to preach for us nex' Sunday. I wish you'd go 'n hear him. You don' know how mis'able it makes me to be in the fold and have my husban' out of it."

"What's an evangelist?"

"An evangelist is one of them minister's the Lord sends onct in a while to stir up the feelin' o' them as can't be tched by ordinary means."

"One of whom I am which."

"Yes, you be, Elijah. I'm sorry to say it. I hope you'll go and hear this holy man and mebbe he'll teach your heart."

Mahudha Dunkers sighed and walked away. Her efforts to bring her husband under the influences that guided her always proved abortive. He was a matter of fact man, while she was emotional. By some he was called a scoffer, though no one ever heard him speak disrespectfully of religion. He disliked cant and those disposed to cant called him a scoffer because he was not of their ilk. The couple lived in the far west where extremes were in vogue. This had made the wife an extremist in matters of religion. If the husband was an extremist it was in the manifest presence of the devil who seemed to guide both the good and the bad in Nuggetville.

Sunday morning came and a few minutes before service time a man in clerical garb was seen descending the trail. He walked with a firm step and carried a prayer book in his hand. The Reverend Mr. Saintly was unknown to a single person in Nuggetville. He had sent word that he would preach there on that Sunday morning and hoped that he would move every unchristian man, woman and child in the camp to repentance.

Elijah Dunkers saw the evangelist coming and watched him descend the canyon.

"What makes ye scowl so, Elijah?" asked his wife. "It seems that everything holy has a contrary effect on ye. Can't you look at a man of God without shinin' the impurity there is in ye? It isn't you that's scowlin' at this servant of the Lord; it's the devil that's got a hold on yer heart."

"Jes' you go to meetin', Mahudha. What ye got to put in the hat?"

"I got four ounces o' dirt."

"Ye goin' to give four ounces o' dirt to that?"

"Forbear, Elijah! Forbear! Don't speak impiously of the Lord's anointed."

Elijah turned away. His wife made one more effort to induce him to accompany her to the grove that was one of "God's first temples," but he paid no attention to her.

The evangelist found the people of Nuggetville assembling and taking seats on the boards ranged in front of a stump to which a piece of scantling supporting an inclined bit of timber for a book rest was fastened. Mounting the stump he said:

"My friends, I wish before beginning the service to ask if any one of you have brought to this place consecrated to the Lord's service any of those hellish machines used to kill your fellow men. If so please go and deposit them at the foot of that tree over yonder."

He waited while several of the men present, awed by his impressive tone, deposited their revolvers and knives as he directed. When they were again seated the evangelist asked if any other person was desecrating the place and called down the wrath of heaven upon them if they were. This resulted in the deposit of two more weapons, after which the service proceeded.

Mr. Saintly proved to be one of those men who have the faculty of pouring forth a torrent of words, working on their hearers more by their personal intensity than by what they say. Excitable himself, he excited others. His word pictures of the terrible damnation in store for those who did not do what he told them to do were lurid as an approaching tornado. Mrs. Dunkers, the most emotional woman in the congregation, became hysterical. The evangelist finished his exhortation with the following words:

"And now, my hearers, I wish you to plant on this holy ground a church. I desire that one of your number pass around the hat to receive your contributions, and remember that as you give so shall you be received at the last day into heaven."

A white headed man arose, passed around a hat, and when he had finished set it down, overflowing with gold dust and coins, at a point indicated by the evangelist. Then the good man dismounted from the pulpit stump, walked up to the hat, faced the congregation, drew a 42 caliber revolver, covered those present, picked up the hat and said:

"You're the easiest plucked lot o' galls I ever relieved o' their dust."

He was turning to walk away with the plunder when a shot knocked his revolver out of his hand, and before he could recover Elijah Dunkers had downed him.

"I know ye," said Elijah, "as soon as I saw ye comin' down the canyon. Ye won't play evangelist no more."

That evening after a rope ceremony at Nuggetville, Mrs. Dunkers was very sad.

"I'm thinkin', Elijah," she said, "that practice religion and makin' fools of ourselves is two different things."

Mr. Taft showed his capacity to do a little insuring on his own account when he appointed Prof. Holmes chief of the Bureau of Mines.

Mr. Roosevelt keeps right on telling what he believes in, apparently quite unmindful of the fact that there are just stacks of people who don't care what he believes in.

The Baltimore Sun represents Mr. Taft as wondering if one corner of the square deal stretches as far as Beverly. The Colonel knows vastly better how to preach than how to practice the square deal.

The census shows that the churches in New York City have been outgrowing the population. This does not bear out the assertion that has been made by some pessimistic New Yorkers that the churches in New York have lost their influence.

An excursion from Danville comes to Greensboro and Battle Ground today. The visitors from the city on the Dan have shown good judgment. At the Battle Ground they should find much to instruct and inspire and Greensboro should prove reasonably entertaining to them. Our Danville friends are welcome. Let them come again.

Mr. Barnes, of New York, is spicy reading, observes an exchange. True enough. The champion of the Republican standpatters in New York State is not a political coward by any means. He may lose out in his fight to unhouse Roosevelt, but, to use his own words, "what difference does it make if you do lose, so long as you act the part of a man?"

It is said that Germany and England are planning motor-driven warships that will make dreadnaughts obsolete. Invention, which materially alters everything it touches, seems to be revolutionizing the science of fighting on the sea. A new warship is hardly built before some new discovery makes it obsolete and useless except to swell the junk-heap.

A leper in Baltimore is getting well. The improvement is attributed to care and good food. Dr. Woods Hutchinson, an eminent medical expert, advises that one eat as good food as his purse will allow. Thus it is that the problem of disease is after all largely a problem of the distribution of wealth. The lack of good fare and good food brings on disease and assists it vigorously when once it has been started.

A newspaper correspondent who is out in the west securing some information on which he is basing articles for the Columbia State and other papers quotes Senator Bristow, of Kansas, as saying that if the Populists had anything good in their platform any other party should be willing to take it. It always was a very strange thing that a really good measure should be ridiculed just because the Populists happened to have espoused it. A proposed new law should be considered on its own merits and no prejudice should be attached to it because it was once favored by a political party that failed to make good.

Visitors from neighboring counties here yesterday brought encouraging reports as to the prospects of Maj. Stedman, the Democratic nominee for Congress. It is predicted that Rockingham will give him at least three hundred majority. Several visitors were here from Alamance. One of them predicted that Major Stedman would get 600 majority in that county. Others said that on a conservative estimate his majority would be 300. A gentleman from Orange said that county would go for him by a decisive vote. All three of these counties two years ago gave the Republican candidate small majorities.

Surprise Marriage.

At 11:30 yesterday forenoon at the Hotel Huffine Mr. George W. Nelson, of Stokesdale, and Miss Mary L. Cummings, of Summerfield, were united in marriage by Rev. L. I. Cox, of Elon College. The wedding was a surprise to the many friends of the young couple but was not a runaway affair as there were no objection by relatives of the contracting parties. A few friends from Summerfield and Stokesdale witnessed the ceremony.

Democratic Leader Likens Himself to a Bird With a Plucked Tail.

New York Herald.
Kansas City dispatch to New York Herald.

In the tone and temper of one who sees another enjoying a salute made with ammunition of his own creation, Mr. William J. Bryan today discussed Mr. Theodore Roosevelt's Western tour, and while he would not be led into any definite statement as to whether the erstwhile President had worked a crafty assimilation of his own teachings there was an evident intimation that he believes somebody has stolen his thunder.

"From what I read in the papers" he said, "Roosevelt seems to be getting a rousing reception. As to progressive republicanism, all such movements have a vast educational influence apart from the success or failure of the political purpose of the effort. Roosevelt has been hailed in Kansas as an 'insurgent.' I see by the papers that he said here he would rather be called a progressive. He now has a good chance to show his progressive spirit by going to the aid of La Follette in Wisconsin. La Follette is now more distinctively progressive than any other Republican.

"While Roosevelt has pronounced himself a progressive he yesterday endorsed Mr. Burkett in Omaha. Mr. Burkett is a well known standpatter. In view of Roosevelt's own utterances it would seem easier for him to endorse La Follette than Burkett. I hear it reported that he will aid Senator Lodge, and Lodge is a standpatter. I offer it merely as a suggestion that to aid La Follette would be one way in which he can show the country that he is progressive or insurgent."

"Do you think Roosevelt by his Western tour is preparing to run for President again?"

"I am not sufficiently in Roosevelt's confidence to state his private views," Colonel Bryan replied with a smile.

"Will you run again?" he was asked. "No, as I have already stated several times."

"Some of the people say that Mr. Roosevelt is stealing your thunder," was suggested.

"Well, you remember a cartoon published some years ago," Colonel Bryan replied, "in which Mr. Roosevelt was shown as a bird on the nest, while I was another bird sitting out on a limb. That same cartoon applies today. In the original picture I had but one feather in

BIG CIRCUS DAY
IS ALMOST HERE

Every One Is Looking Forward to the Big Day With Much Pleasure.

In spite of the annual and sometimes more frequent occurrence of "circus day," the majority of the people of this city are always ready to welcome the white tents and red wagons. Now that the date fixed for the appearance of the John Robinson Combined Shows is almost here the interest is becoming acute and thousands are planning to visit the show.

There are people who really object to the coming of a circus, especially one of the magnitude of the John Robinson Shows, because of the tendency of the average citizen and countryman to make it a holiday. Such people, however, are born pessimists, and undesirable citizens. They forget that while they may be able to attend and enjoy the theatre every week, most of those who attend a circus are only able to do so about once or twice a year. The latter is the amusement of all classes of people, because it is a bargain counter of amusements. Nowhere else can so much be seen for the same price and nowhere else can it be enjoyed with the same enthusiasm as in the circus throngs. The city is not immune from the circus fever and especially is this true when the attraction has the magnetic drawing qualities of the John Robinson Shows. They are without question in a class by themselves; no other tented enterprise can offer such a varied and interesting program of novelties or display such a collection of trained animals and thrilling performers. The horse stables alone are worth visiting to all lovers of the

HOUSEBREAKER ARRESTED.

Negro Charged With Breaking Into Mr. D. H. Wilcox Residence In Jail.

Chief Neelley and Officers Causey, Foushee, and Jeffreys arrested a negro, Charles Walker, known as "Kid" Walker, for the robbery of the home of Mr. D. H. Wilcox, on East Washington street. Mr. Wilcox had been robbed of a good suit of cloths, the thief making a change in the house putting on the new suit and leaving his old one. The suit that was found in the house Walker acknowledged as his.

Walker is the negro, who when John Robinson's circus was here about two years ago, was arrested for robbing a house while the people who resided there were up town looking at the parade. He was convicted and given two years. He has been off the roads just eight days, when arrested he was well dressed and seems to be well supplied with money.

FRIENDS' REVIVAL CLOSES

Rev. Mr. Hiatt Delivered Three Fine Discourses on Sunday—Afternoon Meeting Largely Attended.

The meetings at Friends church under the leadership of Mr. Chas. Hiatt came to a close Sunday night, the day proving a very strenuous one indeed for the preacher. At the mass meeting for men at 3 o'clock, which saw the culmination of the plans carried out for Mr. Hiatt in a special discourse to the men in answer to the question outlined in The Telegram of Saturday. Ninety answers were given, the greater number of which pertained to increased railroad facilities and more manufacturing plants. One or more replies had been made and choosing his text from Paul's letter to the Corinthian church "Acquit you like men" he proceeded to show that what Greensboro needed first of all was the cultivating of the highest type of manhood and after he touched upon several more of the answers given he touched upon the answer given by himself and which strangely enough not one of the 90 had mentioned and that was Greensboro men should get in closer touch with the farming interests around them. Get on the band wagon of this progressive agricultural wave now spreading over the whole country. Help the farmers in every way possible towards making the acres around Greensboro produce to their utmost capacity, and thus make the country an exporting rather than an importing nation.

The address was a splendid effort and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large number of men present, many coming forward to express to Mr. Hiatt their appreciation. The Quakers of Greensboro are to be thanked for arranging so timely an address upon a topic touching the hearts of the people so strongly. At the meeting Sunday night Mr. Hiatt's subject was the evidences of the Second Coming of Christ and as usual he handled his subject with the finest of skill and an interpretation which could but convince his hearers that he had given the theme a great amount of study. The evidences were undisputable that we are drawing near unto the great day when the greatest Ruler of all times shall come.

Mr. Hiatt leaves this morning for his home in Indiana and early in next month will move to California, his next years work being at Long Beach, Cal.

THE MILL SCHOOLS.

Increased Attendance on Opening Day—The Teachers.

The schools at Proximity, Revolution and White Oak opened yesterday and the attendance is reported to have been heavier than in any previous year. There will be more pupils who will enter today. The teachers for the three schools this year are:

Proximity: Miss Della Grimsley, principal; Miss Annie Anderson, Miss Ariminta Hester, Miss Maude Hester, Miss Cordy Olive, Miss Florence Stewart and Miss Field. Revolution, Miss Alice Grimsley, principal; Miss Ledbetter, Miss Starr, Miss McCulloch and Miss Hall.

White Oak, Miss Roche Michaux, acting principal; Miss Ethel Brown, Miss Betty Faison, Miss Annie Merritt and Miss Annie Lea. Miss Mary Cator is principal, but she is absent on account of ill-health.

Mrs. Bennett Returns To Charlotte To Live.

The many friends of Mrs. J. A. Bennett will regret very much to learn that she returned yesterday to Charlotte to make her home in the future. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett came here from Charlotte last Christmas and had made a number of warm friends who sympathized deeply with her in her recent great sorrow, when Mr. Bennett met such a tragic death. While walking through the Southern yard he was struck by a fast train and instantly killed.

DR. KING'S NEW LIFE PILLS.
The best in the world.

SACRED RELIC CURES.

Thousands flock to Shrine of St. Anne in Seventy-Sixth Street.

New York World.
This is the last day of the novena at the shrine of St. Anne in the Church of St. Jean Baptiste, in East Seventy-Sixth street, where a wrist-bone of the saint is touched to sufferers from ailments, in the belief it will cure them. The church has held from six to eight thousand persons every day of the past eight days. Today the feast of St. Anne, 10,000 are expected.

The closing days of the novena brought to light several alleged cures that the clergymen call wonderful.
There is the case of Mrs. Susan Bernard, of Waterville, L. L. Up to last Friday she was totally blind, it is asserted. She made the trip from her home to the church with her son. After the relic had been rubbed on her eyes she sat in the passage between the church and the rectory. A priest stopped to ask about her health. As she turned in the direction of the voice, the story runs, she exclaimed, "There goes a sister!"

Next it is set forth that a book was brought to her and, though she could not read the small characters, she could see the white pages and the colors of the pictures. A second time she entered the crypt of the church and the relic was again rubbed across her eyes. Before she left the church, yesterday's story went, she was able to read large print. "And she said she had been blind 50 years," added the informant.

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs,
like strains on machinery, cause breakdowns. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E.
Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes:

"That I did not break down, while during a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Dodging the Bore.

The tardy clubman paused at the door of the smoking room.

"Bingley," he asked, in a whisper,
"has Slodger given out the daily statement of his health and told all about his symptoms yet?"

"Yes," said the man inside the door.
"He's just finished."

"All right, I'll come in."—Chicago Tribune.

Conclusive.

Briggs—It's too bad about Winkle and the girl he is engaged to. Neither of them is good enough for the other.

Griggs—What makes you think that?
"Well, I've been talking the matter over with both families."—Life.

It is useless to attempt to reason a man out of a thing he was never reasoned into.—Swift.

The Lash of a Fiend

would have been about as welcome to
A. Copper, of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It has most trouble some at night," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me completely.
I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, la-griffe, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hayfever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy.
A trial convinces. 50c, $1.00. Trial

Fast Colors.

Eva—Do you like that new rouge?
Is it a fast color?

Fanny—Fine. It will even stand kissing.—Illustrated Bits.

When Merit Wins.

When the medicine you take cures your disease, tones up your system and makes you feel better, stronger and more vigorous than before. That is what Foley's Kidney Pills do for you, in all cases of backache, headache, nervousness, loss of appetite, sleeplessness and general weakness that is caused by any disorder of the kidneys or bladder.
Holton Drug Co.

Hello! Willie. Is your sister engaged this evening?" asked young Mr.
Gotox, affably. "Not yet," replied Willie, "but she said if she didn't land you tonight she might as well give it up as a bad job."

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.
What a fortunate provision of nature it is that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that the canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable storehouse of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by, falling hair and graying have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists, the true cause of hair destruction is known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbros' Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading drug-stores. Send 10c, in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed.

NO WEDDING RING AFTER SEVEN YEARS, SHE SUES.

THIS CLOTHING STORE HAD A PAIR OF LEGS.

That's Why Michael Meyers, a Plumber, Made Out Payroll in the Queens County Jail.

New York World.—A courtship of seven years that failed to produce a wedding ring landed Michael Meyers, twenty-five years old, proprietor of a flourishing plumbing business, at No. 142 Jackson avenue, Long Island City, in the Queens County Jail last evening on an order of arrest sworn out before Justice Putnam in the Brooklyn Supreme Court by Miss Minnie Goldsmith, twenty-two years old, energetic and handsome, who lives at No. 155 Dumont avenue, Brooklyn. She charges Meyers with breach of promise and demands damages in the sum of $10,000.

The arrest yesterday was a sequel to a scene which occurred in Meyer's plumbing establishment about a week ago when, it is alleged that Miss Goldsmith, accompanied by a friend, broke into Meyer's private office at his store in Long Island City and demanded that he marry her. Instead Meyers had Miss Goldsmith summoned before Magistrate Smith in the Long Island City Police Court, who told Miss Goldsmith to make her appeal to a civil court. The order of arrest was obtained yesterday. It proved a most inopportune time for Meyers. With the aid of his stenographer he was just getting his pay roll in shape and fixing up his business for two holidays. He had to complete the business of the day, and he was allowed to take his books and stenographer with him to the jail, where they finished up the pay roll and other ends of the business.

An affidavit made by Mrs. Rachel Glass goes to confirm Miss Goldsmith's allegations. Miss Goldsmith has been living with her for the past six years. Meyers was a constant visitor at the house. Furthermore, Mrs. Glass says she was the custodian of Miss Goldsmith's savings and that at one time she gave Meyers $500 of the money to use in paying off a mortgage on lots owned by him and that in return he agreed to make Miss Goldsmith a partner in his business.

A Reliable Medicine—NOT A NARCOTIC

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Arrested Man Wore 12 Coats and 6 Pairs of Trousers and Had Hobble Skirt.

New York World.—"That fellow just ahead is a lot too fat for his height," said Acting Captain McLaughlin of the Alexander avenue police station to Patrolman Foster as the two were strolling along Third avenue last night.

"He does seem about as broad as he's tall," assented Foster.

"Let's follow him," said McLaughlin. So the policemen trailed the fat person to the bridge at One Hundred and Thirtieth street and Third avenue and there stopped him. Inspection showed that he was wearing an unusual amount of clothing.

"What's the matter with you?" asked McLaughlin.

"I was sick and afraid I'd take cold," was the reply. The walking clothing store was peeled in the police station. The police say he wore 12 coats, six pairs of trousers, one waistcoat, and one unfinished skirt of the hobble variety. He did not exactly wear the skirt. It was wrapped around his waist.

The prisoner said he was William Young, twenty-four years, a plasterer, with no home except when he lived with his sister at No. 56 North Third street, Paterson, N. J. McLaughlin says Young admitted that early Wednesday he broke into a tailor's shop at Glover and Westchester avenues and took the clothing. He hid it until last night, when he thought he could remove it safely. He was locked up on a charge of burglary.

It Saved His Leg.

"I thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swenson, of Watertown, Wis. "Ten years of eczema, which 15 doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklin's Arnica Salve cured it, sound and well." Infallible for Skin Eruptions, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Boils, Fever Sores, Burns, Scalds, Cuts and Piles. 25c at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

"It Looks Just Like NEW"

This was the expression of a lady when she called to get a brooch that she had left here for a new pin.

The brooch was polished and refinished.

The new pin was properly fitted and, as she said, it was really new again, and the charge was 15 cents.

How many old pieces of old jewelry have you got lying around that a few cents would make as good as new and put into service again?

Collect some of this old jewelry and bring it down and get an estimate on the cost of fully repairing.

Our work is above comparison, our service prompt and our charges reasonable.

MAN SLAIN IN OHIO WAS SON OF A RAMSEUR MAN

He Left His Home Five Years Ago To Go West.

Fifteen different people gave Chief Police Neely information relative to the family of J. R. Whitehead, who was beaten to death by a gang of ruffians in Columbus, O., the affair being told of in Sunday morning's Telegram.

A letter was received by the chief last Saturday from a young woman in Columbus saying that her affianced husband, J. R. Whitehead, had been killed and requested that the chief of police assist her in locating the unfortunate young man's parents.

Mr. Neely learned from readers of The Telegram that the young man's people lived in Ramseur, his father being Morton Newton Whitehead, a foreman in a cotton mill at that place.

Young Whitehead left Ramseur about five years ago, starting west, and his people had not heard from him up until about two months ago when he wrote asking if he might return home. He was a telegraph operator and his leaving home is said to have caused his mother to grieve herself to death. Chief Neely talked with the father over the phone but he did not learn whether or not the remains will be brought back to North Carolina.

Proximity Juniors.

At last night's meeting of Proximity Council, Junior Order, the representatives to the State Council, Messrs. Pennington and J. J. Phoenix made reports of an encouraging nature. Mr. Phoenix was elected National Representative this year. Following the business a watermelon feast was in order and a number of the juicy melons were sliced up and eaten. The council is preparing to make an active campaign for members during the fall and winter months and the prospects are quite encouraging.

Commissioners' Meeting.

The Guilford County Board of Commissioners met yesterday in regular monthly session. The principal business not of a routine nature was the hearing of a delegation with regard to the drainage of Horse Pen creek. The freeholders appointed not having reported, the matter was deferred until Monday, Sept. 12. The board will be in session again today.
